

Community Arts Center

220 W. Fourth Street

The Hundred Dresses Pop-Up Exhibit!

On display for First Friday, 5 – 7:30pm. The exhibit was based on Eleanor Estes' classic children's book. The book centers on the story of an immigrant schoolgirl who is teased for her accent, name, clothes and family's poverty. Stop by to create a paper dress of your own to take with you! The Kiwanis Club will be right outside the radio station doing a Burger Burn! Other vendors will also be in our inner lobby selling their items. The CAC will be having tours throughout the evening. The Uptown Music Collective will also be performing on the BB&T stage next door!

All events take place on First Friday,
August 2nd unless otherwise noted.

Otto Bookstore

107 W. Fourth Street

Author, Melinda Wentzel

First Friday, 6-8pm. We are pleased to be hosting Melinda Wentzel's On Motherhood: Fireflies to First Dates, which offers a collection of memorable essays on parenthood written by a seasoned humor/slice-of-life columnist and mom of three. Ron Bonnett also joins us for a signing of his new mystery, Veronica. This twisted tale becomes very personal for freelance reporter, Ron Bennett, as he finds himself caught up in this tale of jealousy and murder.

Little Jets Boutique

43 W. Fourth Street

Art Buzz Kids Special

$10 Art Buzz Kids Special! Join us on First Friday at 5pm for a mini art class outside of Little Jets Boutique.

The Genetti Taphouse Gallery

200 W. Fourth Street

Group Exhibition 2019

Stop by the Genetti Taphouse Gallery to view the latest show of the Bald Eagle Art League (B.E.A.L.). "The Art of Architecture" will be a group exhibition by B.E.A.L. members and will be on display through October 1st. Join us for the opening on First Friday at 5pm.

The Madd Potter

Celeb-foodies – Famously Delicious

By Kira Hovanec

No one ever said art has to be serious — nor does it have to have some intense conceptual meaning. Our next artist on display Kira Hovanec, enjoys having fun and her work is a reflection of that. It's the feeling of being pleasantly caught off guard by a moment of "aha" followed by the comfort of a favorite food. What could be better? This is the experience she wants to give viewers because this is the experience she has when creating her work. Stop by on First Friday, 6-9pm.

Peter Herdic House

407 W. Fourth Street

Metalwork by Elli Groninger

The Peter Herdic House will be hosting a Garden Party of fanciful metalwork by Elli Groninger, on the patio and in our lounge on Friday, August 2, with an artist's reception from 6-8 pm. The show will be paired with a playful "Fairy's Garden" menu sourced from the Herdic herb garden and our local farms and fields. Come dig Elli's fabulous work this First Friday!

Gustonian Gifts

357 Pine Street

Seashell Art by Lisa Yingling

Gustonian Gifts will be featuring Williamsport native, Lisa Yingling. Her distinctively designed seashell art adds a vibe of relaxation and class to any home. With visions of the coast and breezy days at the shore, her pieces of art capture the essence of the ocean with every shell being unique in size, shape, and color. Lisa hopes her artwork brings the natural beauty of the ocean into homes near and far. Little league pins will also be available for sale, with part of the profit going to Bellabon Pet Recovery. Open 9am-8pm.

First United Methodist Church

602 S. Market Street, Muncy
