Temporary Art at Rider Park! Join us Thursday, August 3, 5-7pm to learn about ephemeral art, also known as temporary art. We will collect objects from around the park to create our own temporary work of art. Learn about a famous artist named Andy Goldsworthy and the shapes and colors he is able to create with natural materials such as leaves, twigs, rocks, water, and ice! Discuss how artwork from natural materials encourages conservation. Collect plant materials and create an art piece to take home.

Call 570-321-1500 or email saras@fcfpartnership.org to register for this free event. Visit RiderPark.org for directions. Please park at the picnic pavilion.

Words from our President...

Here we are almost end of summer. Does anyone else think it flew? Whew! So many great things happening in the arts as well as our community. Last month, we introduced all of you to "Augmented Reality Art" and I can tell by the reactions that everyone was just blown away! We try to continue to share new and innovative right along with the tried and true...As Paul Cezanne penned " A work of art which did not begin in emotion, is not art." So come in and get your "feels" going! Lycoming Arts Gallery has so much in store for the rest of the year....you will want to stop by regularly!

On to our Williamsport First Friday™. As many of you might remember, August is Kids First Friday and also Lycoming Arts celebration of our birthdays! WLAC dba/ Lycoming Arts is 63 years old and we have been offering Williamsport First Friday to the community for 23 years! The Kiwanis Kids Carnival will once again participate and be found in the Mural Canyon off Fourth near Bullfrog. A new and exciting feature is being added from Lycoming Arts -Tom Woodruff, Jr and his 1966 Barris Batmobile (from the TV show) along with Chris Ring with Batmobile & Bat Family Comics will be at the other end of Fourth Street ( near Market) in Lamar Park! This will delight young and old! What else? Well, we have about 118 Vendors, 8 Food Trucks ( plus Kiwanis has a few food vendors too), Music on 3 stages-Lynn & Farley 5, Better Than Nothing & The Vandals will all perform in various spots through town from 6-8. United Way is joining the fun and will offer more Kids activities on Pine Square!

The Community Garden project that our PublicARTWORKS committee has been helping with is nearly completed. Watch for news and pictures!

We had so much fun helping Sara at Rider Park last month that we asked if we could add a couple of classes. These are being instructed by our interns, Nidhi Sobrun and Marissa Loner.They are wrapping up their time with us. We have really enjoyed having them here. They have been put to work!

There are many exciting opportunities coming our way. We had a feature im BOOM magazine and were interviewed by both the Sun Gazette and Webb Weekly! Word is spreading and we are up to the challenge!

Stop in! The Art is Fine!
